I am the Child

I am the child who cannot walk.
The world seems to pass me by. You see the longing in my eyes
to get out of this chair,
to run and play like other children.
There is much you take
for granted.
I want the toys on the shelf,
I need to go to the bathroom,
oh, I've dropped my spoon again.
I am dependent on you
in these ways.
My gift to you
is to make you aware of your fortune of healthy back and legs,
your ability to do for yourself.
Sometimes people appear not to notice me -
I always notice them.
I feel not so much envy as desire, desire to stand upright,
put one foot in front of the other,
to be independent.
I give you awareness.
I am the child who cannot walk.
